

INDIGO

The awakening has begun

INDIGO

Ep1. Pilot "Awakening"
an hour-long sci-fi thriller
by Carlos Sanz

LOGLINE

Indigo revolves around a group of adults who possess paranormal abilities. They will seek to free humanity from a modern-day slavery that has seen our planet pushed to its doom. A long-lasting conspiracy between a pharmaceutical mogul working in tandem with a hostile government stands in their way.

OVERVIEW

Indigo is based on a pseudo-scientific New Age concept. In the early 90's, mediums began noticing batches of newborn children with Indigo auras. Psychics hailed them as the next step in evolution. Children who would manifest integrity, empathy, higher IQ's and paranormal abilities; sent here to free the planet from an obsolete system that enslaved humans. Others, however, quickly opposed this theory and marked it down as a "crisis of American childhood" in the form of increased violence, ADHD, hyperactivity, autism and authority issues. In the Indigo universe, fear of change and the struggle for power leads to a hostile takeover of the health care system by a pharmaceutical mogul working in tandem with the government. To keep ensuring maximum profitability and population control, they now target and track down Indigo's around the world, keeping them at ease and unaware of their true power by using off label medications to treat improper behavior, stemming from ADD to serious mental disorders. Those of extraordinary ability have been brain washed and turned into agents. A group of young Indigo heroes who escape their radars will come together to bring this corporation down.

PILOT SYNOPSIS

On the day of their awakening, six magnetic flares shoot up to the sky, causing erratic weather patterns for hours. They are quickly captured by Pharma Corp's satellites. Agent Snow, who is also Pharma Corp's CEO and the first Indigo to ever exist, immediately deploys highly trained agents in a search and seizure mission to bring in six powerful Indigo's who have the capacity to unlock extraordinary abilities. Lany, a highly-trained agent with astonishing strength and the power to track Indigos begins to regain control of her own mind. She finds herself torn between helping her kin and completing the job, struggling to accomplish her seize mission. Carlos, a professional athlete and telepath continues his quest to stardom, flying to New York to fulfil his destiny, unknowingly discovering his purpose too. Hana, a glowing beauty with the power to be one with nature, finds her better half in Fabio, a healer with a deep understanding of the universe. Together they face the inevitability of destiny and use their gifts to preserve life. Wadjet, a powerful psychic apprentice plagued by seemingly unrealistic visions, is forced to confront the truth: her visions are real. Mark, a former high school football captain turned writer soon realizes his stories are a map leading him to other Indigos. He brushes off the rust and puts his athletic abilities to use, escaping the agents to find the rest. Zachary, an Indigo scout who lives in hiding does everything in his power to bring the Indigos together. By hacking into computers and secured buildings, he draws them all to New York City, were he makes sure their ultimate destiny is fulfilled – uniting as one to bring down Pharma Corp. Its not an easy task for Zachary, as our heroes must ultimately make compromising decisions and deal with personal issues amidst a battle against Snow and company.

CHARACTER DESCRIPTIONS

CARLOS

(20's) A professional athlete with fierce determination that goes together with his relentless personality. Carlos is handsome, tan and likes to spend time listening to people's stories, seeming to always have perfect advice for everyone but himself. He reads minds. A true communicator. He is sweet and has the tenacity to become a true leader but his lack of patience and difficulty following rules often complicates things for both his single mother and him.

HANA

(20's) The pure embodiment of the significance of her name: flower. She is a glowing beauty caught up in the LA lifestyle. She radiates happiness and cheers everyone up, but her carefree spirit is wandering lost, trying to figure out where she belongs. Finding her connection to nature will be key to understanding her gift. Often involved in drugs and partying, she breaks all the rules, especially in fashion, still managing to fit right in with the Hollywood crowd. She has the girl-next-door face that is easy to fall for, adorning her body with gold chains and bracelets that contrast her dark locks and tan skin.

FABIO

(20's) Backpacking around the world. He is extremely ambiguous and free-spirited. His father is a shaman and Fabio is his apprentice. A great song improviser, he finds inspiration in people and their attributes, and unknowingly heals them from traumatizing experiences. People in his village believe it's magical. He's flowing through life, distracted and absent-minded. He is very aware of energy, the universe and his powers, but he believes they are purely spiritual. His father is threatened by Fabio's power and sends him on an imaginary poor man's "quest."

MARK

(20's) Ethnically ambiguous. He is kind, but his apparent lack of intimidating attributes masks a very troublesome past. Former high school football captain and class Valedictorian, Mark's college dream was snatched and his popularity hit rock bottom when his parents died- and that's when his obsession with writing began. He so strongly believed that his stories about superpowers were real, that soon, rumors spread around the school that Mark was nuts. He since keeps to himself, has trouble making eye contact and sometimes it's hard to tell if he's talking to you or himself.

LANYING

(20's) Goes by LANY (significance: lustrousness), is a highly-trained agent. She possesses the ability to track down any indigo around the globe and is able to see what they see. She is of Asian descent and was snatched from an orphanage at an early age, brainwashed and trained in mixed martial arts. She is disciplined and her animalistic focus keeps her alive in the city. Undercover agent for a pharmaceutical mogul, Lany seems nice but she'll slit your throat if she has to. As she slowly infiltrates the lives of the newly awakened Indigos, she feels the urge to protect them, compromising her missions. Her mind is split between two sides and will face the inevitability of discovering her true power and deciding whether or not to unite the Indigos in their journey.

INDIGO

WADJET

(20's) Is of Egyptian descent and possesses an unconventional ancient beauty. She has an old-woman's soul and a deeply rooted knowledge of how the universe works, yet she can't seem to find her place in it. Flooded by seemingly unrealistic visions, Wadjet finds it hard to be present and live a normal life. We first notice her big, striking, deep-set eyes. She is named after a goddess, the patroness of Lower Egypt, represented as a cobra.

ZACHARY

(30's) Is an Indigo Scout. Zachary used to work for Pharma Corp as a trainee agent under Snow's command. He is nerdy, always wears the same pair of beaten up glasses, and seems to constantly make bad jokes. At the same time, he's one of the most powerful Indigos in the world. Over the years, he's absorbed different abilities and is now ready to recruit a new generation of Indigos who will change the fate of the planet.

AGENT BLACK

(30's) Is short, bald and has small beady eyes. Appearances are deceiving when describing Black. He might not look like a superhero but he was certainly a war hero, awarded two medals of Honor in the Iraq war. A retired veteran turned criminal; depression, PTSD and a rough transition back into society landed him in prison after a series of criminal acts, only to be bailed out by a pharmaceutical mob boss that sent him down an even darker path.

SNOW

(50's) Tall, fit, silver hair is COBALT CORP's C.E.O. Born to a middle-class family in a small town in Utah, as a young boy Snow exhibited very unusual talents. He was capable of reading people's thoughts and predicting their future. Villagers soon felt uncomfortable in his presence and spread the rumor of a demonic presence in town. The first Indigo to exist, he and his family faced extreme discrimination and violence. His powers came at a very expensive price. They were rounded up one night and burned alive. The town cheered on. Somehow Snow escaped and was rescued by a government agency and trained as an agent to restrain Indigos. He has remained loyal to them as a means to assure his survival and is determined to make the world suffer. Lately his powers have greatly diminished but his desire to punish all humans still fuels his anger.

SEASON 1 ARC

The first season, "Divide and Conquer", showcases a group of young adults known as Indigo who possess supernatural abilities. They were born in the 90's to a world divided where power, greed and the love of money ruled the land. Planet Earth is now nearing extinction due to global warming, homeless shelters are flooded with people and modern day slavery is a reality. People have lost sight of the essence of life and the importance of love while corporations keep profiting on humanity's frail existence. On their awakening day, the Indigos gradually become aware of their powers. The story develops showing their reactions to these 'gifts' and how discovering the true meaning of their lives affects the future of the planet. They lead by example, unlocking empathy in other humans and showing them the true path. At the same time, Pharma Corp investigates the origins of these gifts and the extent of their abilities. The government has carried this secret operation for years, with only one goal: profitable existence. Our heroes will come together and work as a team to overcome their own issues and embrace their gifts. Under the command of Zachary, they will fight to bring down Pharma Corp. A series of accidental events and unexpected allies will aid them in their task, which will not be an easy one, once they discover just how deep the rabbit hole goes.

INDIGO

MIND

INDIGO

NATURE

INDIGO

PROPHECY

INDIGO

EDGE

INDIGO

VISION

INDIGO

HEAL